Bryan Naugle Receives Dave Marr Award Prestigious Award Given Annually at Insperity Championship

For Immediate Release
May 2, 2013

Houston, TX--In 1999, the Dave Marr Award was created to honor individuals who exemplify all the traits Mr. Marr lived by—sportsmanship, honesty, character, integrity and a passion for the game of golf.

Annually, the award is given to a worthy recipient during the Insperity Championship week. Past recipients include: Arnold Palmer, Brian “Bruno” Henning, Miller Barber, Don January, Ed Seay, Ben Crenshaw, Dan Jenkins, Larry Nelson, Tom Watson, Fuzzy Zoeller, Jay Haas and Lee Trevino.

This year, the committee presented the award to Bryan Naugle during a special player dinner Thursday night.

Naugle, the Executive Director of the Insperity Championship, has been promoting, managing and operating professional golf tournaments for over 30 years and as a youth was inspired and encouraged by Dave Marr to get involved in the game. Naugle considered Marr a hero and played a large role in creating this award.

The California native started out roping and pounding stakes for PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour events in Palm Springs, found his way to the operations and promotions staff of the Champions Tour in its formative years, studied the rules of the game and became a Rules Official and then Tournament Director before becoming a partner of ProLinks Sports-- one of the most successful and respected companies in golf.

Along the way, he earned the respect of such greats as Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino, Gary Player and many others. With a constant smile on his face and a willingness to share, he also created friendships in many cities and states where the Champions Tour visits.

Under his guidance, the Insperity Championship has received three of the Champions Tour top awards in the past four years. And, on an individual level, he has received the prestigious Bruno Award for outstanding contributions to the Champions Tour and the game of golf.
