Robin Byrd Fires 66 to Lead Final Six Qualifiers into 2013 Insperity Championship Field

Robin Byrd fired a six-under-par round of 66 at The Woodlands Country Club Gary Player Course to win Tuesday's qualifier, and earn one of the final six spots up for grabs in the 2013 Insperity Championship, presented by UnitedHealthcare.

Byrd, of Satellite Beach, FL, carded eight birdies and two bogeys on the 6,855-yards par-72 course. Mark Bucek, of Winter Springs, FL, and 1996 U.S. Open winner, Steve Jones, posted rounds of 67's under warm and perfect conditions.

Barry Lane, of Sweden, FL, locked up his spot in Friday's opening round at The Woodlands Tournament Course with a round of 68. Rod Spittle, of Dunedin, FL, and Anders Forsbrand, of Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, secured the final two tee times in the 81-man Insperity Championship field when the opening round gets underway on Friday at 10 a.m.
