Chat with the Champ – Esteban Toledo

"It's an honor to be here. Colin Montgomerie called me "champ" and Bernhard Langer called me "champ" too this week. It's kind of cool because I've never been in this position before. I can see how every week, every champ up here they treat him good. They know who won last year and I think they're kind of excited for me this week."

"I think you guys are going to see a champion this week. It's going to be tough out there. And hopefully it is me."

"The Insperity Invitational is a little different than last year. It's going to be a tough match this week. So many guys are playing so consistent. It's a new challenge for me how to handle myself as a winner, but the only thing I can do is just be myself."

New Life for Jeff Maggert

"It is kind of strange telling everyone you're the youngest guy in the tournament when you're 50 years old, but there is kind of a small window out here to be successful. Out here the time between 50 and 60 just seems to pass really quick."

"To be honest, of all the professional tournaments that I've been involved with as far as a sponsorship standpoint, Insperity is at the top of the list. Just the guys that I've met here this week...I can't say any more – they are just A plus! It's really amazing to see this type of involvement from a sponsorship level. I'm sure a lot of other Champions Tour tournaments would be envious to have a sponsorship like this."

Did You Know?

- Amateurs playing in The Woodforest Pro-Am this week will all receive a box of the new Nicklaus Black golf balls that were launched this winter;
- Bernhard Langer needs to finish in the top three to be the first to go over $1 million for the season in just his seventh event. Fred Couples was the fastest to crack the $1 million mark in 2010 when he surpassed the mark in just six events;
- Champions Tour Player-of-the-Year, Kenny Perry, who won three times in 2013, has not won since last fall's AT&T Championship in San Antonio, TX.

Strike Through Cancer at the Insperity Invitational

Volunteers, spectators and Champions Tour players will have the opportunity to strike through cancer – literally – at an interactive booth presented by The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, a sponsor of the Insperity Invitational, at The Woodlands Country Club Tournament Course. A media and photo opportunity with cancer survivors and a Champions Tour professional will take place at the display on Friday at 3 p.m.

Visitors to the Strike Through Cancer Art Wall, located near the 17th hole, will show their support to end cancer by coloring in red within the outline of the institution's symbolic "strike through cancer" logo while adding their personal message.

Groups Set for 3M Oil and Gas Greats of Golf on Saturday

For the past two years, thousands of fans have lined the fairways to watch a collection of the game's greatest legends share laughter and competition during one of the best Champions Tour events on the calendar.

The Greats will follow the last official tee time on Saturday, and will play in the following groups:

Group 1

Raymond Floyd
Don January
David Graham

Group 2

Johnny Miller
Dave Stockton
Tony Jacklin

Group 3

Jack Nicklaus
Gary Player
Lee Trevino

This legendary and world-class group of the game's greatest players - which includes seven World Golf Hall of Fame members who have combined for more than 300 PGA TOUR victories, over 50 major championships and more than 150 Champions Tour titles - will tee off following the last tee time of the official competition. The Greats will play an 18-hole scramble format.
