THURSDAY MEDIA ROUND-UP

Toledo Set to Defend his First-Ever Title on Friday

Esteban Toledo will begin defense of his Insperity Invitational title – the first of his Champions Tour career. Toledo, who won in a three-hole playoff on Cinco de Mayo last year, was the first Mexican to win on the Champions Tour.

“It’s still going through my head a little bit what I did last year. I was practicing last week and I got to the 17th hole, and there was nobody around, and I kind of went on my knees and I did just like I won. It was just kind of cool,” said Toledo. “It’s going to be a tough match this week. So many guys are playing so consistent. It’s a new challenge for me how to handle myself as a winner, but the only thing I can do is just be myself.”

The following are some facts about Toledo’s win last year:

- the win came in his ninth career start on the Champions Tour;
- it was the first win for Toledo since the 2005 Lake Erie Charity Classic on the Web.com Tour, ending a drought of seven years, 10 months and a day;
- he was the first Q-school graduate to win on the Champions Tour since Eduardo Romero claimed the 2006 Tradition;
- his comeback from seven strokes down matched the largest in Insperity history. Larry Nelson also rallied from seven back to win the inaugural tournament in 2004;
- he became the fifth player to win the Insperity Invitational in his first appearance;
- his winning total of 6-under-par 210 was the highest score to win a 54-hole Champions Tour event since Jerry Pate won the 2008 Turtle Bay Championship in Hawaii with a 5-under-par total for three rounds;
- he became the first Insperity winner to not shoot three sub-par scores in the tournament.

What the Pros are Saying in the Media Center

“I’ve had a wonderful start, been in contention most weeks I’ve teed it up. It’s fun, just playing good golf, very consistent, had lots of top-10’s lately and it’s always nice to be amongst the last two or three groups on Sunday playing for the title.”

...Bernhard Langer

“Anything can happen in this game and especially on a golf course like this, too. You could have a great start and lead wire-to-wire, or you could have an average start and still win it on Saturday or Sunday by shooting a great score, breaking the course record or whatever. Anything can happen in this game and it usually does.”

...Bernhard Langer

“The course is kind of like an old friend. I didn’t forget much about the golf course when we weren’t playing here. When we came back here it hasn’t gotten any easier, I know that. The greens are very small in certain areas and hard to get to pins. Seventeen and 18 are still two of our hardest holes that we’ll ever want to play.”

...Jay Haas

“I’ve had some good tournaments here in the past, but I’ve also looked like an idiot like a lot of people have in the past hitting balls in the water. It can be a difficult golf course. It is playing fast. It’s in as good as shape as I’ve ever seen it though, from tee to green.”

...Jay Haas

Quote of the Day

“I will play here every year barring an injury. This (course) I love. This is one of my favorite courses that we used to play on, and now on the Champions Tour. We have good crowds. We play what I consider to be a really good golf course and usually you have to hit the ball well here to score.”
